Parents need to establish routines and expectations from day one of online learning. Parents are encouraged to set regular hours for their student's schoolwork including a normal