day (not district wide).

We discussed what the WPG pays for and what we do not, and process for requesting funds. We will endeavor to formalize the process (once again).

Winter Faire – Coming on February 11, from 11am to 4pm. The upper grades will have an opportunity to have a booth to sell handmade items to fundraise for their class (8th grade trip), in lieu of having a booth at Enchanted Village. The 8th grade has the bake sale.

Conference	It was great to hear from people who have been in Waldorf education for decades. A poster was shared (6 Core Principles of Public Waldorf Charter Schools) Jack Petrash was one of the keynote speakers. There are some good youtube videos of him, including a TED talk. The theme of the conference was “Widening the Circle” and there was a lot of discussion about diversifying the population of our schools. Lynne suggests finding out if we can show Eugene Schwarz’s movie (Waldorf Education For All) on ASD channel 11. Dara and Molly went to a social action/sustainability session with a young environmental activist who is working with a high school in California to be a “One Planet” school (working in sustainable ways). Sue went to a workshop on inclusion and came back with lots of questions. (Do we have advertising in the community about our school and lottery?) Molly went to a session about middle school rigor, high school prep, and starting a high school. Discussion: Marya: We should have a working list of goals, to work on things (ie diversity, strings) Sarah G: Good topic for a 3-body meeting
Business:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Amend July 2016 to note that Christina Eubanks did not send a response to a community comment. (Meggan 1st, Lynne 2nd. Unanimous) b. Gratitude- for Mr. Young- his calm demeanor and positive relationship with the school district. To Ms. Colleen who embodies so much of who we are and how to respond to children. For new parents attending our meetings and for people who are going out and doing things (ie conference).
